BRITAIN YEARLY MEETING

The annual gathering of Friends in the whole of Britain was held in July. Their Epistle, can be found at

<https://www.quaker.org.uk/documents/epistle-of-britain-yearly-meeting-2024>

SWARTHMORE LECTURE

Each year a lecture is given at the time of Yearly Meeting.

The 2024 Swarthmore Lecturer, Ben Jarman has delivered his lecture: Getting what we deserve? Imprisonment and the challenge of doing justice.

Ben explores the myth and reality in how society responds to serious crimes, charting the uses and abuses of society's responses to crime: retributive punishment, rehabilitative intervention, public protection, and calls for incremental or radical reform. Drawing on personal and professional experiences, He invites Friends to reflect on where current prison conditions belong in the longer flow of Quaker witness on penal reform, and to ask: who (if anyone) gets what they deserve from the institutions we have?

The whole lecture can be watched on YouTube
<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=vwqolkC0nnc>

WORK PARTY IN THE MEETING HOUSE

Friday 13 September, 11.30 to 4.00

We are looking for volunteers to help wash and paint some internal walls.

Further information from Charlotte Wright charlmorayplace@outlook.com

Please let her know if you plan to come.

HELP WANTED!

The role of Glasgow LM Nominations Committee is to find Friends willing to have their names put forward to be appointed by LM to various committees and posts enabling the Meeting to function.

The Nominations Committee does this through a process of discernment– finding a good fit between vacancies, those offering service, Friends' skills and the needs of the Meeting using worshipful approaches.

At the moment, Nominations would like to hear from any Friend who has a leading to offer service and who may have specific skills.

We currently need Friends to serve on the wardenship and lettings and the health and safety committees; but we'd like to hear from anyone who is interested in helping the Meeting function - and you don't need to be a member! We can put you in touch with existing postholders for an informal chat as to what is involved as well as offering support in a new role.

Please contact Neil McKechnie, Clerk of the Nominations Committee, in the first instance (mckechnienm@yahoo.co.uk), or any member of the Nominations Committee (Neil McKechnie, Tina Cunningham, Sheila Semple, Maureen Waugh, Phillida Ball, Terri Sutherland).

Quaker Faith and Practice 3.22 to 3.25 (6th edition) might be helpful reading as background.

Neil McKechnie.

QUAKER BUSINESS MEETINGS

The next Local Meeting for Business is on 1 September at 1pm in the Meeting House. Lunch will be provided beforehand for those attending.

The next West Scotland Area Meeting is on Saturday 5 October in Ayrshire. Friends in Ayrshire are offering hospitality overnight on the Friday and Saturday, giving the opportunity for Friends to enjoy a weekend event with social activities and a ceilidh.

General Meeting for Scotland will be held on Saturday 21 September in Inverness.

Details of all these meetings will be circulated nearer the time.

NEWS OF FRIENDS

Congratulations to Francesca Ball who was 100 on 20 August. Phillida has written about her life at the end of this newsletter.

MEETING FOR WORSHIP AT FASLANE NAVAL BASE

Sunday 22 September

This forms part of our Quaker witness for peace. We hold a quiet meeting for worship outside the gates where Trident submarines are based. We hope that more Friends will be able to join us. We can arrange transport there.

Gather at the north gate at 11am for an hour of worship. Bring suitable clothing and something to sit on if you wish. (There are some large rocks there.)

Further information from Mary Alice Mansell (mamansell54@gmail.com) or Daphne Wassermann (daphne@aquarius1000.plus.com).

The following date is Sunday 10 November.

BOOK OF DISCIPLINE REVISION COMMITTEE

Update and consultation: Thursday 5 September

Mary Woodward and Nuala Watt, two of our WSAM representatives on this committee, will present an update on the work of the committee, and will consult with us on the particular section on which they are working. That section is 'Relationships', which in the current Red book is headed 'Close Relationships'. We'll find out what's behind this change of title and be able to make suggestions and respond to any questions they want us to consider.

This will be on Zoom only, on Thursday 5 September. We can gather informally from 7.15 and will start the main part of our session at 7.30. Here is the link:

TREES FOR LIFE

Last year we had a special collection for Trees for Life, a Scottish rewilding charity established 30 years ago with the aim of working to restore the Caledonian forest in the Highlands. Glasgow Quaker Meeting purchased an initial grove of trees which has been added to by individuals and now stands at 92 trees in total.

You can donate at any time by purchasing a tree or trees at £6 each and add a message, if you wish, in celebration of an anniversary, a birthday, as a gift or in remembrance. Some have planted trees to remind themselves of their carbon emissions from their car journeys.

The website <https://treesforlife.org.uk/> has a 'search for grove' option where you can insert Glasgow Quaker Meeting, or go to <https://treesforlife.org.uk/groves/457932/>

The website has lots of information on their rewilding activities including opportunities to visit, attend an event or stay at their Dundreggan Rewilding Centre in Glenmoriston.

The special collection on 25 August will be introduced by Gisela Creed and is for the Quaker Council for European Affairs (QCEA), based in Brussels.

Overview

Europe, like the world, faces complex crises: climate, conflict, inequality. We need a sustainable, just Europe that engages globally with non-violent solutions, respects all people, and safeguards our planet. Quakers, truth seekers, believe answers lie in open dialogue across differences. We offer our commitment to peace, justice, and equality to support European institutions in building a better world

At present their work concentrates on 3 areas:

Climate Justice and Peace

Dialogues for Transformation

Migration and Peace, where for example QCEA brings a peacebuilding approach to migration, striving to eliminate violence against people on the move. Our goal is to influence European policies for safe and fair migration, promoting lasting peace. We advocate for policy changes, highlight successful practices, and emphasise the connection between migration and conflict dynamics in EU initiatives.

Finance: the work is supported through 40% of donations from European Quaker Meetings and individuals and the rest from charitable trusts.

You can contribute in person in the Meeting House

Alternatively, to make a bank transfer in Pounds Sterling, please use the following account details:

Francesca Ball is a hundred years old!

One or Two facts about Francesca (you may or may not know!)

Our mother was born in S.E London 20th August 1924. Her mother told her that she 'borned herself', that is without a midwife present so it appears she had an independent spirit from the beginning!

She was the middle child of 3 children, her older brother Charles was 4 years older and her younger brother Stuart was 4 years younger. Sadly both her brothers and her father died at 72 years.

Our mother was rather a tomboy as a child, perhaps partly being the only girl and it seemed that boys were also rather favoured in those days.

As a child she said she used to spend hours and hours in the tree in the garden sometimes contemplating 'what's nothing for ever and ever'. It seems that her enquiring and philosophical mind has never left her!

There was also a railway embankment at the back of the garden over the wall which she sometimes climbed over with her friend Alastair who lived down the road. If the signalman saw you, you were in trouble!

She used to play cricket in the garden with Alastair but if the ball went over the wall into Mrs Gamble's garden you lost a few points and if Mrs Gamble saw you she would open her window, clap her hands and tell you how naughty you were especially if she heard you saying rude words like 'bum', she would threaten to tell mother and then our mum would bend down on her knees pleading with her not to!

Our mum attended the first Rudolph Steiner School in Britain aged 6 years, then went to Saffron Walden Quaker School at 12 or 13 years where she stayed only a year. She wanted to be a violinist so had to get lessons in London. War then broke out so she went to live in Dorking where she was billeted with the Fry family where she made lifelong friends especially Biddy who also became a musician.

At 16 years old mum was accepted into the Royal Academy Music School where the teachers were very strict and she worked very hard. As it was war time she spent most of her time alone practising her violin and she felt very lucky to be doing what she wanted to do especially as many people she knew were conscripted into the war. Her brother Charles at this time was also conscripted but was sent to prison for being a conscientious objector as their father had been during the WW1.

Mum received a gold distinction from the Academy at 19 years old and being war time, there was a lot of work for musicians as the government had 2 projects for promoting music and the arts.

She met her husband Keith in Aylesbury at a Quaker discussion group when she was 16 years old having moved from London after the windows at home were blown out twice. He was 9 years older and was working at Stoke Mandeville Hospital at the time. 5 years later they were married at Westminster Quaker Meeting.

Mum continued to work as a musician though mainly deputising for orchestras as she was also busy being a mum! Later she spent a lot of time playing in Northern Ireland with the BBC Orchestra.

Besides music she has always had other interests and took up studying Czech in her early 40s and has maintained her friendships in the Czech Republic and Slovakia since then. She has a great gift for making and keeping friendships and has friends she still keeps in contact with from as far away as Japan and America.

As part of her interest in people she decided to do an MA in Peace Studies with Bradford University which she received when she was 70. Her dissertation was based on Gypsies in Slovakia, whose cause she tried to find a way of supporting. This wasn't always easy!

Mum also had a stint of teaching English to Foreigners having made her qualification. She spent some years teaching English mainly to Japanese women in her local area in London.

She also took a huge interest in supporting Keith in his medical causes of preventative medicine, coronary heart disease and ASH (Anti Smoking and Health), often searching and cutting out relevant articles for him to use.

Two or three years after Keith died in 2008, Francesca moved up to Glasgow to live nearer her two daughters Rachel and Phillida where she has settled happily.

She has felt particular welcomed by Friends from Glasgow and Milngavie Meetings which have helped her to feel at home in Glasgow.

Mum, we are very proud of you and we love you very much.

Happy 100th Birthday!

Phillida Ball
