The life of our meeting

We have been asked how we would describe the life of our meeting. Local Meeting for Business on 20th July (minutes on page 3) suggesting posing the following questions to each member and attendee:

- How does the spirit move in our meeting?
- What do you value in our meeting?

Please give/send your thoughts to Susie Reade, susiereade@gmail.com, who will collate them to inform the report that we are to give to Area Meeting when it is held at South Edinburgh on Sunday 21st September (from 2pm). Further information below.

The life of other meetings

Area Meeting in April noted that Elders had initiated a programme to encourage each other and all members and attendees to participate in each others meetings, and also to receive periodic reports on the life of each local meeting. The schedule for this for the remainder of 2014 is shown below:

Date	To be held at	To hear the life of ...
Sun 21 Sep	South Edinburgh	South Edinburgh
Sat 25 Oct	Polmont	Polmont
Sat 29 Nov	Central Edinburgh	Central Edinburgh

What will be in the report?

This is flexible, and South Edinburgh will be the pioneers, but here is Phil Lucas' (AM Clerk) initial summary of thoughts about the idea and format:

"It would help us to build our Quaker community if we could hear, in turn, about the life and work of each Local Meeting. It was felt it would be helpful if, rather than being a report read out to us by the clerk or another member, it would be good if several from each Meeting could share aspects of the life of the Meeting with us.

How many attend worship? Are numbers increasing or decreasing? Does your community include children or young people? What activities do you engage in beyond your regular meetings for worship? What challenges and what hopes do you have? Or you may choose to focus on just one aspect. The livelier the style of presentation, the better.

We don't want this to be a burden to your Meeting. Ten minutes will be enough, or you can fill twenty if you wish."

Minutes of Local Meeting for Business of Sun 20th July 2014

11 Friends were present. During our opening worship we heard a reading from Gerald Priestland (Quaker Faith & Practice 21.25).

Minutes of the last meeting and matters arising from the minutes

Minutes of the meeting held on Mar 16th 2014 have been circulated and were signed by the Clerk. The meeting scheduled for May had been cancelled.

7/14 Local meeting accounts – Martin Burnell (prevented) had informed the clerk that he still does not have the information from AM that was outstanding in March, but that there was no immediate financial risk. We hope to finalise the accounts at our next meeting.

10/14 – Militarisation in society

David Turner drew attention to a climate of increasing militarisation, promoted both directly by government and indirectly in the way that 1914 has been commemorated, going beyond remembrance to 'supporting troops'. QPSW has drawn attention to this. David Turner will ask for more copies of their briefing.

We agreed to raise this in our next MSP dialogue. We ask AM and GM to consider how we can react to this, for instance by presence on Armed Forces Day, and in schools.

11/14 – An account of the spirit of our local meeting

Area Meeting has asked local meetings to reflect and report this and South Edinburgh's turn is due at AM at the Open Door on Sunday September 21st. We began to reflect on it. It was suggested that we ask our members and attenders two questions:

- How does the spirit move in our meeting?
- What do you value in our meeting?

We ask Susie Reade and David Somervell to coordinate and bring our response to AM.

12/14 – Area Meeting at South Edinburgh, Sunday 21st September, 2-5pm

We look forward to this and thank Sylvia Massey who has agreed to coordinate the tea.

13/14 – Roles supporting our meeting

We thank Sue Freshwater for looking after Opening Up the premises for our Meeting for so long, Alison Burnley for looking after this temporarily, and Susan Robertson for taking on the organisation of the rota from August.

Date of next meeting: Sunday 19 October 2014, at the Open Door.
